THE NAVY FRAUD CASES.

Second Trial of G. A. Whitaker En tered Upon.
The case of Granville A. Whitaker charged in five indictments with present-ing false vouchers to the Navy Depart-ment, was called for trial a second time in the criminal court yesterday. District Attorney Worthington and his assistant, Mr. Coyle, appeared for the government, and Messrs. Jere Wilson, J. ff Chandler, and D. O'C. Calleghan for the accused.

The defense attacked the indictment, and filed a motion requiring the government to elect on which of the counts they would proceed to trial. A lengthy argument ensued, after which the following was reased.

Ordered, That the court having heretofore instructed the jury to acquit defendant, Whitaker, on the first and second counts of the indicaments consolidated the trial will proceed on the third and fourth counts of the said indictments consolidated.

indictments consolidated.

The obtaining of a jury was then entered upon, and the following secured: Wm. A. Barnes, M. W. Perryman, Wm. Mullen, M. H. Hopkins, S. C. Burnett, John Klins, A. P. White, J. H. Gheen, C. D. Campbell, B. T. Hart, F. V. Offutt, and Eugene Sherry.

Assistant District Attorney Coyle presented the government's side of the case to the jury as he believed the testimony would show, and was followed by Mr. Chandler for the defendant. When the latter had concluded the court adjourned for the day.
